JOAN SCHWEIGERDT BERTSCH

1949-1953

Inducted, Contributor Category, 2017

Joan Schweigerdt Bertsch graduated from Miller High School with the class of 1953. After attending Photography school in Minneapolis, she returned to her hometown and opened Joan's Studio in 1957. She began photographing Seniors, underclassmen and elementary students, plus all sport teams. In the past 56 years she has photographed all the students in the Miller school district. Her photos were also used in the Yearbook. She was always ready and willing to assist the Miller school with her photography skills. Her love of people was the reason for her success in her career. She was a continuous member of the South Dakota Photographers Association and also served as a board member and President. Joan retired in 2015 after 58 years in the photography profession.
